Thank you for applying to The Basket People as an account customer. Following are a simple set of guidelines that have been through necessity installed as Trading Terms for our company.

Please note that we are proud to provide prompt and reliable service and only ask that we be paid on time. If payment has not been received on time, your account reverts to a Pro Forma account.

Our buying power has enabled us to establish a good working relationship with our suppliers. This ensures that The Basket People products are of the highest quality and of the best possible pricing, which is then passed on to our clients. But the only way we can continue to do so is if your accounts are paid on time.

All accounts must be paid within (7) seven days from date of invoice. Delivery charges for local & World Wide are itemised separately on your invoice. A re-delivery fee will be charged if the recipient is unavailable at the given address. Before dispatch of volume orders a 50% deposit of invoice value before freight charges is required, with the balance being paid on delivery. Title of all goods remains the property of The Basket People until paid in full.

Variable payment types include credit cards, money orders, cheques and direct deposits into our bank account.
